

A photograph of a dining room. In the foreground, a round dark wood dining table is set with a centerpiece of fruit and two place settings. Four chairs are around the table: two with tufted light-colored upholstery and two with dark wood X-back designs. A chandelier hangs from the ceiling. In the background, a large arched opening leads to another room with a stone fireplace and framed pictures. A white semi-transparent banner with the text 'DINING ROOMS' is overlaid across the center of the image.
